

Piano concert by Robert Lambermont in Zuiderzee Museum

This weekend, the pianist and artist Robert Lambermont gives a piano concert in the Zuiderzee Museum in Enkhuizen. These concerts are a supplement to his work entitled Great Pneuma which will be on show in the Museum Park until 25 October 2009.

Lambermont plays pieces written by the present-day composer Simeon ten Holt on a grand piano that has been installed in the exhibition space. The concerts take place in the Wierschuur in the Museum Park from 13.00 to 13.45 on 30 and 31 May, and are freely accessible to all visitors of the Museum Park.

Installation

In Great Pneuma by pianist and artist Robert Lambermont, mechanics, technical refinement, poetry and music go hand in hand. His installation consists of a moving island, driven by water power, which will be on display along with other kinetic objects from 23 May 2009 onward. Lambermont created the art and music object at the invitation of the Zuiderzee Museum and Stadsherstel Amsterdam.

On the Zuiderzee Museum

The Zuiderzee Museum presents Dutch art, fashion, design and heritage at the interface of land and water. Exhibitions and events are organized both indoors and outdoor the whole year round, establishing and emphasizing connections with the collection and modern developments in the field of art and culture. Present-day and classic designs are approached in a unique way and are highlighted from various angles. www.zuiderzeemuseum.nl.
